MID-WINTER SPECIAL SALE

JANUARY 15, 1942

This is our Mid-Winter Special Sale but in a different and concise form in order to save paper so that our Government may have more paper for defensive and offensive purposes.

Business has been very satisfactory thus far this season and we expect a much heavier Spring business. Stocks of gladiolus held by growers are now much smaller than is usual at this early date. This fact is especially true of the stocks of the more desirable exhibition and commercial sorts. Hence with a normal demand between now and Spring there will not be enough bulbs to go around for the Spring buyers. Do not put off ordering until too late.

We grew one of our largest crops the past season and still have fair stocks of many varieties while others are running low.

WE DO HAVE THE YOUNG, HIGH-CROWNED BULBS FREE OF THRIP AND DISEASE THAT WILL GROW GRAND EXHIBITION FLOWERS. First come first served.
